

CAROL BETH COOK

President | Partner, Chief Compliance Officer

Carol Beth, a native of Chesterfield County, has been a client of The Main Street Group for many years and joined the firm in 2010. She has over a decade of marketing experience with companies around Richmond, including Ukrop's Super Markets. In 2000, she earned her real estate license and still maintains an active license with Long and Foster.

At The Main Street Group, Carol Beth manages the firm's finances and day-to-day operations. She also assists with compliance issues and ensures that the advisors are keeping appropriate records. The energy and creativity she brings to work every day keep the firm sailing smoothly.

Carol Beth holds life and annuity insurance licenses in Virginia. She has a Bachelor of Business Administration from The College of William and Mary and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Richmond.

Outside of the office, Carol Beth enjoys reading, tennis, quilting and keeping up with her active family!
