

DAVID O'BRIEN

CPA

Client Services Specialist | Accounting

David began his accounting practice in 2011 with a focus on customer service. To achieve his goal of providing added-value services, David reviews clients' personal, business and tax landscapes in order to determine effective strategies.

With over 25 years in the accounting profession in various industries, David can offer a wide range of services to individuals and small businesses. His goal is to help clients learn how to keep more money in their pocket and to effectively manage their resources. David brings an array of knowledge and expertise to the field of accounting.

David is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). He has a Bachelor of Science in accounting and a Master of Business Administration in finance, both from Strayer University. He also is a member of the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA) and the Virginia Society of CPAs (VSCPA).

David is quite sporty! He enjoys tennis, golf and skiing. He also likes to play the piano. When he is not working or playing sports, he and his wife, Billie Jo, like traveling and herb gardening. They have three sons: James, Jeremiah and Luke, as well as two dogs: Cocoa and Shrek.
