

GEORGE GRETES

Client Services Specialist | IRS Intervention

George retired from the Internal Revenue Service in 2006 after 36 years of service. During his time with the IRS, he served as a revenue agent, district conferee and appeals officer. He became an associate chief in the appeals division in 1987, later advancing to the position of chief of the Virginia and West Virginia IRS appeals offices in 1997.

Since retiring, he has worked for Walker Consulting Group, a CPA firm, and taught income tax classes for the IRS and the Virginia Tech Tax Seminars to help accountants, CPAs and enrolled agents.

George is an enrolled agent, which means he has earned the privilege of representing taxpayers before the IRS by either passing a three-part comprehensive IRS test covering individual and business tax returns, or through experience as a former IRS employee. Enrolled agent status is the highest credential the IRS awards.

Because of his extensive experience in examining tax returns and settling issues for the IRS, George is an invaluable resource to clients who might need help to mediate troubling tax issues.

George holds a bachelor's degree in business management/accounting from Old Dominion University.

George is married to Sherri Rose Gretes, a retired nurse practitioner. George has lived in Mechanicsville, Virginia, for 40 years and is the proud parent of three daughters: a registered nurse, a criminal defense attorney and a schoolteacher.

When he is not working, George loves building things and woodworking. He enjoys cooking — specifically Greek dishes — and loves to travel. George has visited Hawaii, Canada, England, Ireland, France, Greece and Italy.
