

NICHOLE BUCK VANDERSLICE

Client Services Specialist | Attorney

Since 1999, Nichole has served as a criminal defense attorney for the indigent, a federal law clerk for a U.S. District Court judge and a commercial litigator for some of Virginia's finest companies. For nearly 10 years, Nichole worked at a respected Richmond law firm, where she learned from some of the most decorated and distinguished lawyers practicing in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

In addition to having tried more than a dozen criminal and civil jury trials, ranging from the defense of violent felonies to the prosecution of patent infringement claims, Nichole has spent over a decade advising and counseling Virginia business owners regarding all manner of employment and other business disputes.

Nichole is admitted to practice in all state courts in the Commonwealth of Virginia, the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern District and Western District of Virginia, the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the United States.

She is a member of the American Bar Association and the Judicial Conference of the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, affiliated with the Virginia Bar Association and on the Board of Directors of the Federal Bar Association (Richmond Chapter) and the Historical Society of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

Nichole earned bachelor's degrees in international studies and Spanish from Miami University in Ohio and her Juris Doctorate from George Washington University Law School in Washington, D.C.

Nichole is bilingual in English and Spanish and is dedicated to providing legal assistance to Virginia's Hispanic community and members of the Virginia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.

Nichole's hobbies include running, dogs, music, amateur photography and embarrassing her children by cheering like crazy at their sporting events. She is an active member of The Brandermill Church, where she serves as a youth volunteer and building and grounds volunteer, and she also is part of the church's consignment sale leadership team.
