

WILLIAM HENDRICKS

Client Services Specialist | Mortgage Advisor

William is a mortgage advisor with Integrity Home Mortgage Corporation. William has spent the past 19 years in financial services and has held licenses in insurance, investments and mortgages.

William started as a teller with Central Fidelity Bank while at Virginia Commonwealth University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in marketing in 1991. He worked his way up in retail banking into management.

After leaving the banking world in 1997, he worked for a mortgage broker. He later joined a major financial services company, where he helped clients develop financial game plans and earned his mortgage broker's license. This experience has given him a unique perspective in evaluating his clients' needs.

Mortgage financing can be an integral part of any financial game plan. William's background in investments, insurance and banking helps him see beyond the mortgage itself and provides insight into how it fits in with overall financial goals. Instead of being just an order taker, William looks for opportunities to strategically use a mortgage to help his clients accomplish their goals.

William has been registered with the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry since Jan. 1, 2010, NMLS #299751.

William grew up in Highland Springs, Virginia, and married his best friend, Becky Thomas. He and Becky are the proud parents of three young sons and reside in Mechanicsville, Virginia.
